

MARTIN BENCHER DENMARK IS LOOKING FOR A PROJECT FREIGHT FORWARDER

Would you like to call Shanghai in the morning and Houston in the afternoon? Are you self-driven, highly motivated, dedicated, creative, willing to walk the extra mile – and still never lose your smile? Then you could be the person we are looking for.

Martin Bencher Denmark is looking for a project freight forwarder for our headoffice in Aarhus. The Group key customers are our focus, which means you will be in contact with global clients and coordinating projects with your colleagues in Aarhus and our offices worldwide. We handle everything from smaller shipments to big projects of unknown volumes. You will be close to the decision-making, and will be expected to share your ideas and innovation to further develop our business and organization.

You will be working with many aspects within the project forwarding industry including:

- Key account customer responsibility with reference to the country manager
- Establishing, maintaining and expanding our customer base
- Evaluating and elaborating on tenders and requests for quotes
- Procuring and evaluating offers from sub-contractors
- Travelling both locally and globally

Your qualifications:

- You are educated within forwarding/logistics. Experience with project forwarding is an advantage
- You have a strong sense of responsibility
- You can work in an innovative, yet structured and organized way
- You like to negotiate and to deliver results
- You are interested in working with different cultures around the world
- You possess a strong market knowledge and business sense
- You are fluent in both written and verbal English
- You can travel, sometimes with short notice

Martin Bencher offers a company culture we are proud of – we are a Great Place to Work. We are a young and dynamic team with great amounts of freedom and responsibility in a company in constant development and growth. We offer you a salary package, pension, health agreement, etc.

Work Location: Aarhus, Denmark

Application deadline: As soon as possible. Job interviews will be held ongoing.
